ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Plans Outlined for the Four Days of the Semi-Centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg. Will Take up Railroad Problem.

The proceedings of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg Commission up to the present time have been published and details of the celebration, as now planned, given out in full. A meeting of the representatives from the various states will be held early in January and further action will be taken at that time. The plans as now outlined provide for the following celebrations:

The first day to be known as Veteran's Day. In it all surviving soldiers of the Civil War, North and South shall be requested to take part as invited guests under the direction of the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, that of the United Confederate Veterans, and under such order as these officers in connection with the Commission may direct the United States flag only to appear.

The second day to be known as Military Day, and to be under the command of the Chief of Staff of the United States Army. Special detachments of each branch of the army to be detailed by the Secretary of War; and representatives of the National Guards of the states to be chosen and invited for merit. Each command to have present a military band and the evolutions of the day to be determined by the Commission in consultation with the army officers in command.

The third day to be known as Civic Day, and to be under the personal supervision of the Governor of Pennsylvania. The participants to be the Governors of the several states, their staffs, and the general public. A great chorus of voices from the leading choral societies of the country, supported by the military bands, to furnish the music. Exercises to be held morning, afternoon and evening in the rostrum. Appropriate orations to be delivered at the earlier services and a sermon to be given in the evening, recognizing the divine Providence in the rise and progress of the Republic.

The fourth day to be known as National Day, at which the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall preside, and the President, Vice President, the Cabinet, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Congressional Committee shall be the guests of honor. At 10 o'clock a. m., a great mass meeting shall be held at the rostrum, at which prayer shall be offered, singing by the chorus and people shall be rendered, and an oration shall be delivered by the President of the United States. At high noon the cornerstone of the Peace Memorial shall be laid by the President, which act shall conclude the official exercises.

On each day the veteran soldiers present shall be regarded as official guests, and shall be provided with seats in a body at all the official functions.

The General Government will be requested to furnish the camp equipage that may be found necessary, and the several states to provide transportation for the veteran soldiers residing within their jurisdiction. The Gettysburg Park Commission will be asked to locate the various camps, and Pennsylvania will be asked to defray the transportation expenses of her own surviving soldiers, and the actual cost incurred in providing the chorus and the officially invited officers of the state and general government.

The anniversary commission will confer with the railroads and railways concerning the crucial question of transporting visitors to and from the field.

OLD RIVALS WON THE FINAL GAME

Gettysburg Closed its Foot Ball Season by Losing to Franklin and Marshall. Only One Point Margin for the Victors.

Two failures, one to handle a punt and the other to kick a goal from touchdown, cost Gettysburg their annual game to Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster on Thursday, the score being 6 to 5.

Neither side scored during the first half but in the third period Franklin and Marshall got a touchdown in practically the same manner as Dickinson got their first score at Carlisle several weeks ago. Breidenbaugh punted for the Lancaster collegians to Gettysburg's ten yard line and a speedy end got the ball before Gettysburg's backs could recover it. A forward pass resulted in a touchdown. Gettysburg played strenuously in the last half and in the fourth period Lawyer carried the ball over for a touchdown on a delayed pass. Dayhoff failed to duplicate Breidenbaugh's feat earlier in the game of kicking a goal from touchdown and the score was 6 to 5. Myers tried several goals from the field before the close of the game and Dayhoff also attempted one just before the whistle blew but all failed.

The game was a good one and witnessed by several thousand people. Gettysburg put up one of the pluckiest fights of the year, her two failures at critical times costing the coveted victory.

The season has not been what might be termed successful, the score of 5 to 3 against the University of Pennsylvania being about the principal redeeming feature though victories were gained over Muhlenberg, Johns Hopkins and Delaware by small scores.

Summary of the season:
Gettysburg 33, Middletown 0.
Gettysburg 3, Pennsylvania 5.
Gettysburg 0, State 31.
Gettysburg 0, Lafayette 36.
Gettysburg 3, Muhlenberg 0.
Gettysburg 5, Johns Hopkins 3.
Gettysburg 0, Dickinson 11.
Gettysburg 6, Delaware 0.
Gettysburg 5, F. and M. 6.
Gettysburg 55, Opponents 92.

Michael, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Staub, of Berlin Junction, had a painful experience Tuesday morning. GOOD LIVER REMEDY FREE

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloated feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain at any drugstore at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.

TAFT EXPECTS LOWER DUTIES

In Authorized Interview Discusses Topics of Day.

HIS VIEWS ON TARIFF ACT

President Would Modify Winona Speech and Talk of His Tariff Board.

New York, Dec. 1.—In the current issue of The Outlook there appears an article entitled "President Taft's Own View, An Authorized Interview," in which the president discusses current topics with an interviewer, as follows in part.

"Speaking of the tariff issue, Mr. President, if you could begin your administration again, would you repeat your Winona speech tomorrow?" the interviewer asked.

"In phraseology, no; in effect, yes. Had I known as much as I do now, I should have realized that there are some things one cannot leave to be taken for granted."

"If I had prepared it two or three weeks before and revised it deliberately, as I ought to have done, I should have clarified several passages. And, particularly, I should have changed the sentence where I proclaim the Payne tariff act the best ever passed. The comparative word would have been a better description of the superlative; for, whatever its shortcomings, the act still contains less to criticize than its predecessors, and it did, as a whole, revise the existing schedules downward."

"I have no fault to find with either Democrats or insurgents for trying to reduce any duties they chose; what I object to is disturbing the business of the country today, when there is nothing better than guesswork to proceed upon, and then disturbing it afresh six months later when the best available information is before us. I do not join in the charge of inconsistency against the Democrats for compromising with LaFollette on the wool schedule instead of standing by their own figures. If they could not get all the reduction they asked for, they were quite right."

"My chief criticism on their tariff activities last session was that they were willing to send me legislation so crude and ill digested that they must have known, if they had paused to think, that I could not possibly approve it."

"Is your tariff reduction program based on the theory that it will bring about a corresponding reduction in the cost of living?"

"I think that effect is greatly overestimated. My chief objection to a needlessly high tariff is that it nourishes monopoly. It holds forth a constant temptation to the formation of little trusts, which often are more directly oppressive to the consumer than big ones."

Make Up of the Tariff Board.

"Mr. President, there is your tariff board. You have been sharply criticized for making it up of men who are not tariff experts."

"And that is true; they are not. If I had been appointing a board of tariff experts I could not have got along with less than twenty-five, in order to do justice to all branches of the subject. What I undertook to do was to make up a board of trained investigators, capable of managing a thorough inquiry into costs of production and of analyzing its elements."

"I fully realize, and I wish our people would, that the present prosperity of the treasury is due in no small measure to the existing tariff, which, notwithstanding all its faults, is a revenue-producer. There is a good deal more that can be said for that act."

"It gave us a maximum and minimum tariff proviso which I deem of the highest importance, and which tended to increase our foreign trade substantially. It gave us free trade with the Philippines, which has made the islands more prosperous than ever in their history, without injury to any American industry. It gave authority that I used to create and appoint a tariff board, which, though not the commission I sought, is doing a most useful work; and it imposed a corporation tax, on which I had set my heart, but which at times I despaired of getting through."

"Now, Mr. President, something of the future. What do you propose treating as your calendar of unfinished business for the rest of your term?"

"In the domestic field, I suppose reductions in the woolen and cotton schedules, and possibly in the metal schedule of the tariff, will go to the top of the calendar. These will be founded, as far as my recommendations are concerned, on the report of the tariff board. I have heard it insinuated that congress will not heed the suggestions of an executive board. As to that, I have no means of judging in advance."

"I am very grateful for the honors the people have given me. I do not affect to deny the satisfaction I should feel if, after casting up the totals pro and con, and striking a balance, they should decide that my first term had been fruitful enough of good to warrant their enlisting me for another. Any man would be proud of such a verdict."

TURKS PREPARE FOR ATTACK

Said to Have 18,500 Men and Thirty Modern Guns Opposite Benghazi.

London, Dec. 1.—Reports reaching Malta from Turkish sources are to the effect that Enver Bey, with 15,000 Bedouin Arabs, 3,500 Turks and thirty modern guns, has taken up a position opposite Benghazi.

Many fierce attacks have been made by the Turks and Arabs on the Italian positions at Derna and Tobruk. The losses on both sides approximate 1,500. The Italian forces apparently fear to advance beyond the range of their naval guns.

Belated censored dispatches from an English correspondent at Tripoli suggest that although the Italian advance of Nov. 26 was important, the fighting was less severe than reported, and the losses on both sides were moderate. The Italians now occupy the same front which they held prior to Oct. 26, the day on which they retreated.

EXPECTS TO GET ASSAILANTS SOON

Officer Says Men Who Shot Aged Man Were Colored.

West Chester, Pa., Dec. 1.—Jefferson Shamer, the aged ex-burgess, who was shot and robbed at his home near here by three masked robbers, is reported to be sinking at the hospital.

The physicians located the bullet in his neck by the X-ray, but as it was close to the jugular vein they were afraid to remove it.

Officer Peoples announced that he has discovered the names of the robbers, that they are colored and that he hopes to have them soon. The police ran out several clues. Officer Peoples tracked the robbers to a point four miles from the scene of the shooting and then lost the trail. There appeared to be two men and a boy. Mrs. Sylvester, Shamer's housekeeper, says she is sure the robbers were colored, two men and a boy.

Thomas W. Marshall, president of the National Bank of Chester County, and Sheriff David M. Golder each offered $100 reward for the capture of the robbers. The community is thoroughly aroused and many farmers and others are going armed.

TO LOAN $150,000,000

England to Continue "Two to One" Naval Standard With Germany.

London, Dec. 1.—The probability of a big naval loan in the near future is revived by the Pall Mall Gazette, which anticipates that $150,000,000, and possibly more, will be raised supplementally to the usual naval estimates.

It is argued that in view of the campaign in Germany in favor of an increased navy for that country, it is necessary for Great Britain to show that she is determined to preserve the "two to one" standard. The provision of adequate docks for the dreadnought battleships also necessitates heavy expenditures.

Killed Flying as Passenger.

Vienna, Dec. 1.—Mosca, the aviator, was killed while accompanying Lieut. Conant Nittner as a passenger in a flight at Wiener-Neusiedl, in lower Austria. Something went wrong and Mosca was thrown out of his seat and fell to the ground. He was killed instantly. Lieutenant Nittner was unhurt.

INVESTITURE OF NEW CARDINALS

The Pope at Public Consistory Bestows Insignia.

GREET AMERICAN PRELATES

A Great Assemblage Throngs St. Peters to See the Picturesque Ceremony.

Rome, Dec. 1.—The final and most impressive ceremony connected with the creation of the new cardinals took place at the great public consistory at the Vatican, when fourteen princes of the church, including the three American prelates, Cardinals Falconio, Farley and O'Connell, were invested with the red hat, indicating their rank.

Much attention was focussed on the movements of the American cardinals, and large crowds assembled around the doors of the Hotel Bristol to see Cardinal Farley enter his carriage; about the Hotel Quirinal, where Cardinal O'Connell is stopping, and about the monastery of San Antonio, where Cardinal Falconio rests with his brother Franciscan monks.

Inside the Vatican unusual excitement was evident, as for four years no consistory had been held and for centuries not so many creations had occurred at one time. Every available space in all the rooms and corridors along which the papal procession was to pass and in the Hall of Beatification, where the consistory was to be held, was occupied.

After all had taken their allotted places, distant strains of vocal music were heard and the low approaching murmur of many voices announced the arrival of the papal procession. The picture which then unfolded itself was magnificent.

A Magnificent Scene.

First came a jeweled cross held aloft by a white-clad figure. Following came a group of Swiss Guards in their uniforms of red, black and yellow, designed by Michael Angelo, the men carrying halberds. Then came the Sistine Choir, led by Abbe Perosi, singing as they marched, and, after them, ecclesiastics of all orders, priests in black, monks in brown and white, heads of religious congregations and members of the papal court dressed in quaint Elizabethan costumes.

Behind were the cardinals of the Curia, about twenty in number, all dignified and solemn. Then followed a detachment of noble guards. Directly afterward came the venerable figure of Pius X. in full pontifical robes, blessing the kneeling multitude as he passed. The procession closed with another detachment of guards.

When all were seated intense silence fell upon the assemblage, broken by the rising to their feet of the cardinals of the Curia, who advanced to do homage to the pope and then to introduce into the papal presence the new princes of the church. The venerable group which now entered drew the gaze of all present.

The American prelates, John M. Farley, archbishop of New York; William O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, and Dionede Falconio, formerly apostolic delegate at Washington, were eagerly pointed out. They, with the other cardinals just created, approached the papal throne, and on one knelt before Pius X., kissing his hand and foot and receiving the papal embrace. They were then led to the places set apart for them to the accompaniment of music by the Sistine Choir.

The new cardinals then again advanced separately to the foot of the throne to receive their red hats, which were held over the head of each recipient by the master of ceremonies while the pontiff repeated the usual Latin formula for such occasions, after which he embraced the suppliant kneeling before him.

Pope Falls Ascending Throne. An untoward incident, which caused some commotion in the vast assemblage, occurred as the pope was about to take his seat on the throne. As he descended from the sedia, or papal chair, which was borne by uniformed Swiss guards, he fell, and was slightly bruised. The cardinals rushed forward, assisted the pope to his feet and helped him to take the throne. The ceremony then proceeded.

Each of the new cardinals approached the throne, made three bows, kissed the cross embroidered in gold on the velvet shoe which the pope wore on his right foot, kissed the pontiff's hand, his cheek and retired to the bench at the left. Then each in turn received the embrace of the whole College of Cardinals, took his place according to rank, and donned the small cap.

After the entire fourteen had performed these ceremonies, each in turn knelt before the pope. The hood of his great cape was drawn over his head by the two masters of ceremonies, and the pope, wearing only the white skull cap, held the broad-brimmed cardinal's hat over him, impressively reading aloud the liturgy, while two archbishops of the court held the book and candle.

[Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.]

They help sick kidneys. They relieve backache, kidney and bladder trouble.

Here is Gettysburg evidence to prove it.

Mrs. T. C. Biddle, 68 E. Middle St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "Two years ago I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills and at this time I am glad to confirm my former statement. A member of my family was in bad shape with kidney complaint and was laid up for eight weeks. Backache was almost constant and there were severe pains through the loins. After several remedies had been tried to no avail. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured at the People's Drug Store and their use was begun. Relief soon followed and there was a marked improvement in every way. My advice to anyone afflicted with kidney complaint is to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Hardest to Raise.

Harry N. Atwood, the aviator, was the guest of honor at a dinner in New York on the occasion of his recent record flight. Mr. Atwood's eloquent reply to a toast on aviation terminated neatly with these words: "The aeroplane has come at last, but it was a long time coming. We can imagine necessity, the mother of invention, looking up at a sky all criss crossed with flying machines and then saying, with a shake of her old head and a contented smile, 'Of all my children the aeroplane has been the hardest to raise.'"

Making Him Comfortable.

A drummer put up for the night in an out of the way boarding house. His room was under the roof. In the middle of the night, awakening from a dream that he was being drowned, he found a terrific thunderstorm in progress and the rain streaming in on him through a leak.

"Landlady! Landlady!" he yelled. And in reply to his yell the old landlady staggered upstairs and into the room with a big washtub. She plumped the washtub down on top of the drummer, who gave a grunt of surprise and pain, and then she said as she turned to depart:

"There, son; now yer all right, an' jist as soon as the tub fills up yer ag'in, an' I'll have another empty one ready for ye."

Grandmothers Used Sage Tea

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If your hair is losing color or coming out, start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what a change it will make in a few days' time.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. People's Drug Store, Special Agent for Gettysburg.

M'FARLAND BEATS MURPHY

Chicago Boxer Is Awarded Duelsion In Twenty-Round Bout.

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—Packer McFarland outpointed Harlem Tommy Murphy ten to one in Jimmy Co. Froth's pavilion.

With practically every round in favor of the Chicagoan, there was no chance to dispute the decision of Harry Foley, therefore.

Outside of that, however, the showing of McFarland was as disappointing to the crowd as it apparently was to the fighter himself. He was on trial before that crowd of fight fans as a possible successor to Wolgast. And Packey didn't make good. He sent Murphy enough crosses to the jaw to have sent many a boy to dreamland. He punched him in the stomach with lefts and rights and swayed the New Yorker to and fro, but didn't knock him out.

Packer says that he injured his wrist and his right hand about the thirteenth round and couldn't punch any more. There is a suspicion that McFarland deliberately permitted Murphy to stay the limit.

POWERS MAY TAKE HAND IN CHINA NOW

Japan, England and America Expected to Act.

Tokio, Japan, Dec. 1.—It is believed in influential quarters here that the situation has already been reached in the situation in China for mediation by the powers.

Which power will take the initiative, however, remains to be seen. The opinion prevails that Japan, England and the United States will take concerted action for restoring peace in China.

Yuan Thinks Peace Is Near.

Pekin, China, Dec. 1.—The foreign legations here have received printed circulars purporting to come from the revolutionary organization, threatening to boycott the merchandise of any nation making a loan to the government.

Premier Yuan Shi Kai told a member of one of the legations that the crisis would be terminated in eight days. As he is trying to obtain a loan his statement may mean that he expects to be successful.

Military dispatches from Hankow say the strength of the revolutionary army is decreasing. Hunan troops on the rebel side have refused to attack, and 5000 rebel recruits in the province of Hu-Peh have become insubordinate and shot their officers.

There is chaos throughout the provinces of Kwang-Tung, Kwang-Si and Yun-Nan. At Canton Governor General Woo's forces surprised and defeated Cheung Shing-Tak, the usurper to the title of governor general. Many were killed and Cheung and sixty-four of his followers are prisoners.

GIRL DIES LIKE SPARTAN

Tries to Hide Fatal Burns by Changing Clothing.

Mount Holly, N. J., Dec. 1.—Left alone with two younger children while her parents spent most of the day gathering laurel for holiday decorations, Sadie, nine years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Gibe, living near Indian Mills, was so badly burned that she died.

To get some hot water Sadie built a wood fire in the kitchen, setting the kettle directly over the flames. Her dress caught fire and she put the flames out with water from the pump, but not before she had been badly burned.

Although suffering great agony, Sadie tried to hide what had happened by changing her clothing. When her parents returned home from the woods they found their daughter on a couch dying.

McLough, Kan., Dec. 1.—While Le was shooting rabbits on his farm, near here, John Clemm accidentally shot six young women who were standing on the front porch of his home. A rabbit ran around the house and Clemm fired at it with a shotgun. He missed the rabbit, but the shot struck the six women, all of whom were wounded.

BROWN WINS GRAND PRIZE

Smashes Road Record in Auto Race at Savannah.

CONTEST WAS THRILLING

Finish Proved Sensational, Less Than Three and One-Half Minutes Separating the Three Leaders—American Cars Fail to Finish.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 1.—Racing over a track hardened by a cold wave, Bruce-Brown, the millionaire automobile driver, captured the grand prize on the Savannah automobile course.

This was the second time this honor had come to him, he having won the event last year. His record this year was much faster than that of 1910, his average speed for 411 miles being 74.45 miles an hour, a new record for road racing the world over.

Eddie Hearne, another young millionaire driver, seated in a Benz car, was second in this race, finishing less than a minute behind Bruce-Brown. Hearne was driving the car that Bruce-Brown won the grand prize with last year. Ralph de Palma finished third in his Mercedes, one and a half minutes behind Hearne.

The whole race was thrilling. There was not a moment during the time it lasted that interest was not at white heat. In the second lap Bruce-Brown made the distance of the course in 12.47, and in the seventh and fourteenth laps Wagner in a Fiat did two laps in 12.45 each. These were the fastest laps made on the course for the day. In the fifteenth lap Wagner, who was a formidable contestant as long as he was in the race, struck a tree beside the course, having lost for a moment the control of his steering gear because of the intense cold. He was compelled to quit the race, although he was not injured.

Hearne had led the race the greater part of the time up to the last six heart-breaking laps. Caleb Bragg, a young millionaire, drove his Italian Fiat car in fourth. Two other millionaire entrants were Erwin Bergdoll, of Philadelphia, driving a Benz car, and Spencer Wishart, also a Philadelphian, driving a Mercedes car. Neither figured seriously in the race.

Louis Disbrow, in a Pope-Hummer, finished fifth. Two Abbott-De roit cars were running when the race was declared ended. Mulford Out in Last Lap.

Ralph Mulford, winner of the Vanderbilt cup at the opening of the motor carnival week, in his Lozier, the only American car to figure, was a general contender for first place up till the very last lap. In the last minutes of the gruelling contest the driving shaft of his car broke and he did not finish.

When Bruce-Brown rode back to the grand stand in triumph in his beautiful red Fiat car his mother was the first to greet him. Throwing her arms about his neck, she embraced him fondly while the crowd looked on and cheered.

Sixteen cars started in the race, but six of them dropped out. Harry Cole withdrew his Buick-Hundred almost at the start because of a break in the steering gear. Bob Burman quit with his Marmon car in the sixth lap because of engine trouble. Hennerly, driving a Benz, was out for a similar cause, but amazed the spectators in the tenth lap by reappearing. He was then six laps behind and quit officially several laps later.

Patschke, who had surprised everybody with his Marmon car, was out of the race when his car jumped the track at Montgomery Cross Roads in the ninth lap. No one was hurt.

Charles Basel, driving the other Buick entry, blew out a cylinder head in the eleventh lap and had to quit. The hardest luck was that which befell Louis Wagner, who was driving his Fiat car only fourteen seconds behind Hearne in the fourteenth lap. In the next round he broke the steering knuckle of his car and was out of the race.

The last six laps of the race were neck and neck—a battle of the fiercest kind for the lead.

FORMER NORA DAVIS TO RETURN HOME

Wife of Rev. Farrar Under Protection of Her Brother.

London, Dec. 1.—Reports to the effect that Mrs. Frederick Percival Farrar, wife of the disgraced royal chaplain, and sister of Richard Harding Davis, the American novelist, had accompanied her husband in his flight, are not true.

Mr. Davis, who came here in the Mauretania at the urgent request of his sister, will take her back to New York, starting tomorrow.

"I jumped on the Mauretania last Wednesday, thinking she was seriously ill," said Mr. Davis, "and it was only after a day or two at sea that I got a wireless from my brother intimating the nature of the trouble—that it was not illness, but far more serious. When I arrived in London I learned its full extent."

"My sister, who met me at the pier, is bearing up under her great blow. What affects me most is that people who do not know my brother and myself may think that we did not make sufficient inquiries about the history of the man my sister married. But I had met him fifteen years before and knew him as a splendid type of Englishman, a first rate athlete, fond of outdoor exercises and sports."

"Would anyone under the circumstances think of making inquiries, bearing in mind that the man was a clergyman, the king's chaplain, and what his family was?"

Asks $1000 and Gets It.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 1.—At the command of an unmasked man armed with a revolver, A. D. McLeod, teller of the Grandview branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, handed over $1000 cash. The robber escaped. Only two clerks were in the bank when the stranger entered. "Give me a thousand," he laconically ordered, and the clerk complied. The stranger, putting the roll of bills into his pocket, hurried away.

The Best Christmas I Ever Had

"We built a new house with a big pantry full of shelves. In less than a week the pantry became a nightmare. It was a 'separate' room. My kitchen work seemed endless.

Christmas morning terrified me. We had company, a big dinner and I had no help. I went into the kitchen discouraged, ready to cry—and there stood in place of my table a

Hoosier Cabinet

"My husband was at my heels and I knew by his smile that was his Christmas gift to me. In a jiffy we had flour in the bin and all the utensils where they belonged in the Cabinet. I was wildly, delightfully excited.

"Christmas dinner was easy. THE HOOSIER has saved me miles of steps every day since. I shall bless that Christmas as long as I live."

If it is not a Kitchen Cabinet then some other piece of Furniture. We have your gift.

HOW WALLACE L. DE WITT PRINCETON'S PUNTER, MADE GOOD.

Along with those of Sammy White and Eddie Hart, the name of Wallace L. de Witt will go down in history as having much to do with Princeton winning the eastern football championship of 1911. All through the season just closed de Witt's consistently long distance punting and his all round playing at fullback helped the Tigers carry off the title. His kick, which bounded over the goal posts and defeated Dartmouth, will also go down in history.

De Witt hails from Spokane, Wash., and when he tried for the high school team the coach, who happened to be one of the teachers and picked favorites, passed him over, so de Witt went home disheartened. His brother, who happened to be a Princeton graduate, patted him on the back and said to him: "Keep at it, old fellow. Learn to kick. That's what they want, and after awhile they will have to have you." So de Witt took every opportunity to improve in kicking and became so proficient in that particular branch that he was made fullback on the high school team. The principal competitor of Spokane was the Seattle high school football team, which had won in 1905 against Spokane by a score of 76 to 0. In 1907 it was its turn to play in Spokane, and it came with colors flying and a boast that Spokane was not in its class. Neither was she when she got there.

In the presence of 5,000 people de Witt kicked a field goal, winning the game for Spokane by a score of 4 to 0. He helped the high school to win its games in 1908, graduated in June, 1909, and went to the Washington State college at Pullman, Wash., where he played fullback on the football team there, helping it to become the champion of the northwest.

In 1910 he went to Princeton and played on the scrub that year, and in 1911 he made good for the varsity football team against a large number of competitors under the able coaching of Coach Roper. John R. De Witt and others. He helped Princeton to win in the Harvard, Dartmouth and Yale games and probably stands at the head of the big colleges in the United States in his ability to kick accurately and for distance. He is also an all around football player and line plunger. He has two more years to play and will graduate in June, 1914.

The Joker.

In the station restaurant the ham sandwiches were piled high upon the end of the counter when the 11:30 pulled in. The passengers had ten minutes to get a lunch, and the short, fat man realized this as he rushed in and called for a sandwich. The waiter

"DEAL THESE OVER AGAIN, WAITER," picked up one of the buns and slid it halfway down the counter to the hungry one. When the short fellow looked and saw there was no ham between the bun he slid it back up the counter, at the same time exclaiming: "Deal these over again, waiter. I got the joker."—National Monthly.

Clever Excuse.

An Irish soldier, placed on guard over a cannon, was found by his officer in a public house some distance away. "How dare you leave your post?" was the stern rebuke. "Ah, but it's no consequence at all, plaze yer honor," said the man. "There's no two men able to lift that gun between them, much less carry it off. An' if there was more than two I know I wouldn't be a match for them, so I kem away, yer honor."

PUNY LITTLE BOY

"Now Picture of Health," His Father Says

The pale, wistful faces and thin spindling limbs of "delicate children" tell plainly enough the story of poorly nourished bodies.

We know just what ought to be done for such children. Here is a letter from Richard Rush, Columbus, Ind., saying, "I believe I am indebted to Vinol for the health of my little son. He had a severe attack of whooping cough and measles which affected his lungs and constitution."

"We tried several other remedies without any result, then commenced using Vinol and I take pleasure in saying that he is the picture of health now, due to the use of Vinol."

Sickly children need the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains—that is why Vinol builds them up quickly and gives them a fine healthy color. It is pleasant to take and we guarantee that the results will satisfy you—money back if they do not. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.
